Our presenters . . .

Nancy Doughty has served in our ministry, mostly in Michigan, since her graduation from St. Lawrence Theological School in 1961. For eight years she served as Trustee on the UUA Board and was a member of the MFC for five years. Since her retirement in 1996 she has served for six years on the UURMaPA Board of Directors, four of those years as President. In 1998 she and her husband, Bob, moved north from Detroit to Traverse City, MI, where she has been involved with the local Women's History Project as well as area politics, running for the township board. Her favorite creative outlet is collecting baskets and creating new ones from natural materials found in the woods and along the northern shores of Lake Michigan.

Andy Backus has served in our ministry, mostly in upstate New York, since his graduation from Harvard Divinity School in 1983. For four years he served as Secretary/Treasurer on the UUMA Executive Committee, and has been widely known for his work gathering and publishing worship materials. Since his retirement in 2004 he has served four years on the UURMaPA Board of Directors and is currently the Database Manager and Webmaster. Retiring in Bellingham, WA, he has found opportunities to design and build sets for the local community theater and to ply the waters of the Salish Sea with his wife, Chris, aboard their boat, Hepsabeth.
